

4,000 sf addition

more windows and views

this scheme features a long wall of north facing glazing to improve access to daylight and views to a new landscape area a new "great hall"

both schemes feature a "great hall" space with an improved connection to the exterior. extend ceiling entry treatment over entire "great hall" space to improve accoustics improved entry sequence open up area at entry for more display opportunities, a new cafe, and copy room retain existing building features this scheme retains these existing windows and views to exterior on this corner improved meeting room access wall of glass to the main space improves the visibility and connection to a renovated meeting room

1,000 sf addition

concept floor plan - scheme A

1/8" = 1'-0"

auburn library expansion

king county library system rev 09.09.2009

schacht | aslani architects